Photographies d'Égypte à Chicago, exposition

From October 23, 2001 to January 27, 2002, an important collection of contemporary photographs of Egypt will be exhibited at the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago.

The photographs, by Linda Connor, Lynn Davis, Tom Van Eynde, and Richard Misrach, are from the permanent collection of Chicago's LaSalle Bank. The exhibition will inaugurate the Holleb Family Temporary Exhibits Gallery, part of the ongoing renovation of the Oriental Institute galleries.
